

Cosponsored by the Racial Justice Project and the Religious Exploration and Engagement Program of the Unitarian Universalist Church of Urbana-Champaign

Telling the Truth:

Constructive ways to teach about racism and our racial history

A panel discussion moderated by Dr. Don Owen, former Superintendent of Urbana School District 116 and current CEO of Lead for Equity and Engagement, LLC.

Panelists include: Keyarah Johnson, honor student at Urbana High School; Posey, a doctoral student in Information Sciences who has worked with youth for more than a decade; Brandy Smith, Program Coordinator for YWCA and parent of two students in the Spanish Dual Language program in USD116; Elizabeth Sotiropoulos, Parliamentarian and school board member of Champaign Unit 4; and Nate Wahl, Restorative Practices Coach at Urbana Middle School.

Visit the official event page for additional information, including the Zoom link, at uucuc.org/telling-the-truth or our Facebook page at facebook.com/uucuc. We hope to see you there!

November 17, 2021
7–8:30 pm (on Zoom)

