

ORDER OF SERVICE
July 5, 2020, 10:15 a.m.
Making Art and the Power of Creation and Transformation

Sarah Wisseman, Reflection
Charles Wisseman, Reflection
Umeeta Sadarangani, Reflection
Kiri Fagen-Ulmschneider, Reflection
Sam Gingher, Piano
Janet Revell Barrett, Worship Associate

Welcome Kiri Fagen-Ulmschneider

Land Acknowledgement

Prelude “K. 311 II. Andante con espressione” by Mozart

Chalice Lighting Kiri Fagen-Ulmschneider

“Visualize the web of your life, intricate and mysterious. The web is there for all of us...[A]ll of us, no matter how young or old, need a web of family, friendship, community, nature, time, and spirit. In our culture, this weaving is a kind of lost art, awaiting rediscovery.”

-The Web of Life: Weaving Values That Sustain Us by Richard Louv

Reflection Sarah Wisseman

Reading “Box of Pastels” by Ted Kooser* read by Janet Revell Barrett

Hymn #298 "Wake, Now, My Senses"

Reflection Charles Wisseman

Sharing Joys and Sorrows (e-mail it to joysandsorrows@uucuc.org by Friday at 5:00 p.m.)

Community Matters Dawn Longfellow from Wesley Food Pantry

Offertory "Gretchen am Spinnrade" by Schubert

Reflection Umeeta Sadarangani

Reflection Kiri Fagen-Ulmschneider

Closing Words/Chalice Extinguishing Janet Revell Barrett

Postlude "Suite I" by Grieg Holberg

*from Delights and Shadows (2004) Used with permission. Copper Canyon Press.