

We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Announcements

Today's Hospitality Team A Volunteers! Ushers: Pam and Lan Richart;
Welcomers: Amanda Owings and Jenna Zeidler; Decorations: Pam Richart;
Snacks: Cathy Cunningham, Natalie Bacerra-Stasiewicz and Matt Stasiewicz.

Our Shared Offering for June is "About Face: People of Color Committee."

As veterans of color intimately familiar with the inner workings of the world's largest military and the social/racial challenges present all around us, "About Face: People of Color Committee" use their knowledge and experiences to expose truth about these conflicts overseas and the growing militarization of our communities here at home.

The UUCUC church office will be closed on Thursday, July 4 in recognition of the national Independence Day holiday. Regular office hours of 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. will resume on Friday, July 5.

The Building and Grounds Advisory Group is still looking for volunteers to help in a variety of areas. We would like to develop a list of people that we could contact when we need help. If interested, please contact Kate Barton, Facilities Coordinator at: facilities@uucuc.org.

You can now recycle your CFL light bulbs! Place them in the box in back of Fellowship Hall and they will be taken to the appropriate place for recycling. We also accept batteries, printer toner and/or ink cartridges. Styrofoam for recycling can be left outside Classroom 1 in the basement.

The Social Action Committee is co-sponsoring the upcoming event, "Safety Through Solidarity: Building a Hate-Free Community", sponsored by Bend the Arc. This Forum will be held at the Central Illinois Mosque and Islamic Center, 106 S. Lincoln Avenue, in Urbana, on Tuesday, July 2 from 6:45 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. For more information, visit <http://tinyurl.com/y3lew4js>.

Bring backpacks to church on Sunday, July 21! The Worship Service on Sunday, July 21st will be led by the Immigration Justice Task Force. That Sunday also will be our "coming out party" to members and friends with opportunities to join us and participate in our work. One of the projects we'll be rolling out is our partnership with the Latino Parent Liaison of Urbana School District ##16, who has asked us to create welcome kits for undocumented minors attending school next year. We need backpacks to fill with clothes, shoes, blankets, hygiene products, and other items we're purchasing with money from the Social Action Committee budget. If you can, bring a backpack (neutral in color and large enough for a teen) on July 21, please leave it at the SAC Table.

Religious Education News

Religious Education Thank You!

If you served as a religious education leader or supporter this past year, there is a bag full of “thank yous” in Fellowship Hall under the RE bulletin board. Please stop by and pick yours up! Thank you for all you share with UUCUC!

Summer Religious Education: The Rainbow Path

We meet in classroom #1 from 10:15 to 11:30 each week. One or two adult assistants needed each week: This is a great way to learn more about religious education! If you are interested in learning more about how to volunteer, talk to Michele Grove or Emily McKown or sign up on the poster in fellowship hall.

Come see, hear, taste, touch and experience the seven Unitarian Universalist principles

Religious Education classrooms are on the move!

This summer, things will move a bit in the nursery wing. This week, nursery families will discover that the nursery has moved! Check out the new space in classroom #4!

Remembering the Stonewall Riots

The Stonewall Inn riots were a series of spontaneous, violent demonstrations against police raids. This particular raid began the wee hours of June 28, 1969 and lasted 3 days. The Stonewall, owned by the mafia, was turned into a gay bar in 1966. It had no liquor license but existed because of weekly cash payoffs to police. The bar was a dive. Regular raids were purported to enforce the ‘three piece clothing’ law. A patron had to be wearing at least three pieces that matched their gender. For details on the law, visit this link: <http://tinyurl.com/y542ocll>.

The law was used against women dressed as men, and men dressed as women. The Stonewall Inn attracted the most marginalized members of the LGBTQ community. Two drag queens of color, Marsha P Johnson, black, and Sylvia Rivera, Latina, are credited with sparking the revolt. The event is credited as the beginning of the modern gay liberation movement.
