

LIVING LEGACY PILGRIMAGE, MARCH 16-20, 2020

A MULTIGENERATIONAL CIVIL RIGHTS PILGRIMAGE

This five-day Pilgrimage, designed for people ages twelve (12) and over, focuses on exploring sacred American Civil Rights Movement sites in Alabama, Mississippi, and Tennessee through a multigenerational lens.

- ◆ We visit Holly Spring, MS, where Ida B. Wells Barnett, co-founder of the NAACP was born, and then travel on to Birmingham, AL, where the 1963 bombing at the 16th Street Baptist Church that killed four young girls, Denise McNair, Addie Mae Collins, Carole Robertson, and Cynthia Wesley, woke up the world to the civil rights struggle.
- ◆ In Montgomery, we'll visit the new Equal Justice Institute's National Memorial for Peace and Justice and the Maya Lin Civil Rights Memorial at the Southern Poverty Law Center. We'll also learn about the influence of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. at the start of his ministry.
- ◆ In Selma, we'll march across the Edmund Pettus Bridge, meet a veteran of Bloody Sunday, and explore the role of children in the Selma Voting Rights Movement.
- ◆ The trip continues through Marion, where Jimmie Lee Jackson's shooting by a State Trooper sparked the Selma to Montgomery March.
- ◆ We'll then return to Memphis, TN, where we'll visit the National Civil Rights Museum at the Lorraine Motel, where the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was assassinated.

On the Journey

In addition to visiting historic sites, we meet veterans, many of them children and young adults during the Civil Rights Movement. As a spiritual pilgrimage, we reflect on what we experience together so when we each return home we can apply what we have learned to make a difference in today's world.

Now is the time to gain the knowledge and skills we need to pick up the torch being handed to us by the courageous veterans of the civil rights struggle. Don't miss this special opportunity!
